which I offer cheap for CASH.

Yours Respectfully,
E. L. WOODWARD'S SON.

This week we have the pleasure of announcing two more candidates for the office of County Commissioner, and while on the subject, we will take the liberty of calling the attention of the voters of Calhoun to the importance of selecting their Commissioners from portions of the county representing its four quarters. If the Commissioners are taken all in a bunch, from one or even two localities, other localities will
in consequence suffer; but if the court is selected judiciously, the interests of every part will be represented alike, and there can arise no complaint that any part of the county is neglected in the matter of roads, bridges &c. We feel sure that the sense of justice that characterizes the people of Calhoun, will lead to the selection of a court that will be satisfactory to every part of the county. No personal feeling should influence our votes for Commissioners; but fitness for office and place of residence should govern our choice. If we would cast our votes for the welfare of the county alone.

Why do not the merchants of Mobile and Selma, reach out for the trade of this country, along the line of the Selma, Rome & Dalton R. R., more than they do? It used to be that they controlled it entirely, and they might do so again
by making an effort. Montgomery understands the matter, and is advertising and drumming for it largely, and she is getting a great deal of it.

Capt. Ledbetter, of the firm of Green &
Ledbetter, Alexandria, passed through Jacksonville Thursday, en route for New York, where it is his intention to purchase an unusually large and handsome stock of goods for his house at Alexandria. The Capt. is a man of taste and his customers will, of course, be pleased with his selections.

Sept. 6th, 1871.
E. L. WOODWARD'S SON.
Sir—For several days I have been using flour purchased from you, and feel no hesitancy in saying, that if not the very best made, it is of a very superior quality indeed. In short there is no need for any better.

Wm. M. HAMES.
A friend from Oxford in answer to our request, has furnished us some "Oxford Locals." We hope the locals may be supplied as heretofore every week, not only from Oxford, but from Cross Plains, White Plains, Alexandria and other parts of the county.

E. L. WOODWARD'S SON.
Sir—I think there is no better flour
than that I purchased of you.

M. W. FRANCIS.
We acknowledge, with thanks, cards
of invitation to both the Grand Fair to be held at Atlanta Ga., five days, beginning October 16th, and the Agricultural Fair Association, to be held at Rome,
Ga., four days, beginning October 10th, 1871.

If you want a bargain in Silk Velvet Ribbons, go to Rosenberg's.

The house of Green & Ledbetter, Alexandria, have heretofore advertised in these columns. They are shrewd buyers and fair dealers, and hence, their patrons always feel sure of good bargains when they trade with them.

Velvet Ribbons at Rosenberg's cheaper than the cheapest.

Green & Ledbetter of Alexandria Ala., have a large stock of Bagging and Ties,
Tobacco, Coffee, Sugar, Candles, Syrup
&c., which they are disposing of at the lowest market figures.

Our large stock of Boots & Shoes,
bought of Field & Co., Boston, Ma., has just arrived, and will be sold low down, as they have been bought all right.

GREEN & LEDBETTER.
E. L. WOODWARD'S SON.
Sir—The Flour I purchased of you
is of a very superior quality indeed.

J. D. HAMMOND,
Jacksonville Hotel.

Last week by an oversight we omitted
the advertisement of Col. Jno. D. Hoke.
We give it this week, and invite the attention of our readers to it. Col.
Hoke's forte is in keeping something of everything that can possibly be wanted in this market. You may fail to get an article anywhere else in town; but at Col. Hoke's you are sure to find it. This considerate spirit, his fair dealing &c., we need not speak of, for he is as well known to the people of this country as the REPUBLICAN itself.

Ed L. Woodward has again laid under obligations for a lot of his superior chewing Tobacco. That left with us is of the best quality we have found in the market. He has just received it, and will for a few days have it on hand. To lovers of the weed, we say, go and lay in a supply before it is all taken.

Hoop Skirts in great variety at Rosenberg's cheap.

The letter of Judge Walker, on the Two Million Bill is being copied or favorably commented on by nearly all the newspapers in the State which are not in favor of robbing the Tax Payers to pay the receivers of stolen goods—the so-called innocent bond holders.

Calhoun College has now about sixty students. This is a larger number than the friends of the Institution hoped for the first session. Next year we may reasonably hope to see it open with over double the present number. In the meantime let us all be at work for it,
both at home and in our correspondence with friends abroad. New teachers will be added as necessity requires.

I am now receiving and have on hand Bacon, Flour, Salt, Soda, Candles, Spice and Ginger.

Rev. Mr. Richardson, the most efficient agent of the Bible House that we know of, was in our midst last week.
He took up a collection with a satisfactory
result, and reorganized the Bible Society here.

OXFORD LOCALS.
During a recent rain the lightning struck a milk cow belonging to a gentleman in this place, in his yard, killing her instantly. Hurry you lightning rod men.

We had the pleasure of seeing our old friend Colonel Hoke, in town, a few days ago. He is as lively and pleasant as ever.

Oxford claims the happy lot of being free of any radical, wearing a white face.
What other place of the same size can truthfully say the same?

Oxford has enjoyed the refreshings of two protracted meetings lately, and now we are clear from the dejections of radicalism, I think we can all be good awhile.

We had the pleasure of meeting with two of our Jacksonville friends, a few days ago, Capt. Hames & Gen. Forney.
Long may they prosper in their profession.

Oxford is prospering as fast as ever.
Houses are going up on every side, and although we have no telegraph office or Rising Star to proclaim the joyful news,
it is undoubtedly the truth that Oxford
will make a city some day.

The exercises of the Oxford Collegiate Institute were resumed on Thursday, the last day of August with sixty pupils.

It is a remarkable fact that there are more chickens shipped from this place (Oxford) than from any other place on the Selma, Rome & Dalton Rail Road.

A little "fifteenth amendment" went to an apothecary shop the other day in Oxford, and politely asked for a pound of sal-soda, and being informed by the clerk that it was "mol-soda" she wanted,
she readily acknowledged her mistake.
After the soda had been weighed, the following conversation took place:

Clerk—Who is this?
Negro—It's for ma.
C—Who is your ma?
N—Aunt Trudie.

C—Where does Aunt Trudie live?
N—Out there by Jerry Berry's.
C—Where does Jerry Berry live?
N—Out there close to our house.

C—And where is your house?
N—Right down there below his.
C—And where is his?
N—Up there next to the fence.

The little negro being in a hurry to reach home, the conversation was brought to a close.

Oxford again has the unfortunate fate
of losing a telegraph office.

HAPPY MEMORIES.
When I was once a little child,
Mid childhood's rosy bowers,
In distant woods I wandered wild,
And plucked the golden flowers.

I sat beside the little stream,
Beneath the deep blue sky,
And listened to the hawks wild scream,
My little friend and I.

Through deep ravine and lonely dell,
We two together went,
And where the furies seemed to dwell,
We, happy hours spent.

But years rolled by and still we roamed,
In youth's bright glow together,
Both by the catarrh which flamed
And by the distant river.

And on the distant hill-tops high,
Our happy voices rang
And in thunder tones near by,
Our guns were heard to bang.

But time's rough hand has laid its touch,
My friend to another home
And I by the bubbling little brook,
Am left alone to roam.

Outrages by Mexicans upon Ameri-

Information was received at Washington to-day, by telegraph,
stating that the American bark Harvest Home had been attacked
by a force of Mexicans off the bar of Santa Anna on the night of the 27th of August and her master obliged to put to sea without completing her cargo. Another dispatch from Galveston, also dated to-day mentions that the American bark Brothers, owned by a firm in Norfolk, Virginia, and of which James B. Thurston was master, was captured from him by an armed force of Mexicans, also on the 27th of August, off Santa Anna, and that her Captain was forced to abandon her and that 24 hours afterwards he was picked up at Galveston yesterday. Captain Thurston will visit Washington and make a full statement of all the facts in the case to the Government authorities.

HEAVY RAINS IN NEW YORK.

St. Thomas, W. I., August 22, via Halifax, August 31—Another hurricane has swept over this unfortunate island, overturning every house, and laying the place in ruins. Yesterday, about 11 A. M., the gale broke from which point it blew more fiercely until noon, when the wind veered around slowly to North, and fell upon the island in a terrific hurricane. It then shifted to Northwest, and blew with great violence until 5 P. M., when there came a lull, which lasted until 6 P. M. At this hour, a hurricane again swept over the island from the south, but its duration was not so long as the previous visit, nor was its violence
so great. Its term of greatest fury lasted only 2 hours. Closely following in the wake of the hurricane came a awful gale from the South and Southwest which raged for several hours. During the hurricane in the afternoon, several shocks of earthquake rendered more dreadful the situation, of the people, who were hearing overhead
the crash of roofs torn by the hurricane, and had to feel at the same time, under foot the foundations of their houses shaken by the earthquake. Hundreds of dwellings have been swept away and not a house is left standing undamaged on the island. Some six thousand people have been left homeless and destitute, and nearly one hundred and fifty persons were killed and mangled or disabled by houses blown down, or bricks, or tiles flying thickly all around. Already some thirty corpses have been dragged from under the ruins. No casualties to shipping are yet reported, with the exception of a British bark loaded with sugar,
and riding at anchor at the mouth of the harbor, which broke loose
and went adrift Rockwell channel, and is said to have become a total wreck. Two French steamers, recently arrived, drifted about and got fast aground, but the English steamers Casica, Tyne and Delta,
as well as the American steamer
Florida, at anchor here, weathered the storm handsomely, the latter however, having to cut away her masts. The island of St. Kitt is said to be ruinous, as it was caught first by the hurricane which has just passed over here.

Awful Mining Disaster—Republican Programme—Raid on the Monarchy.

An explosion occurred this morning in a coal mine near Wigan, in Lancashire. Some fifty persons in the seam of the mine at the time of the catastrophe are cut off and it is feared are suffocated by foul air.

A party sent down to ascertain the condition of the men buried alive are still in the mine and have it is thought also perished. The neighborhood of the disaster is thronged with relatives and acquaintances of the supposed victims, and the scenes are of the most heartrending description.
Details of the harrowing event are awaited with anxiety.

The Republican Committee has issued a programme which embraces application of a federation to the Kingdom: Abolition of tithes
and privileges, suppression of monopolies, compulsory education, State provisions for laborers able to work
and sustenance for the incapacitated, nationalization of land, popular legislation and diffusion of Republicanism.

The number killed by the explosion at the Wigan mine was 69.
The scenes around the mouth of the mine were heart-rending.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,
CALHOUN COUNTY,

Court of Probate for said county.
Special Term Sept. 2, A. D. 1871.

THIS day came W. T. Alexander, administrator of the estate of Robert P. Alexander, deceased, and filed in court for record
in writing, accompanied with the proprietor's order, to the effect, that he believes said Estate is insolvent, and asks that the same be, by order of this court sequestrated—It is therefore ordered by the court, that the 3rd day of October, 1871, be set for the hearing and passing upon said report and statement, and declaring said estate insolvent, and that notice thereof be given by publication in the Selma, Rome & Dalton, a newspaper published in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, for three successive weeks, prior to said day, as a notice to the creditors of said estate, and all other persons concerned, to be and appear at a special term of said court, to be held at the court house of said county, on said 3rd day of October, 1871, and file exceptions and objections to said report, if they think proper.

the following described lands belonging to the estate of said decedent, to-wit:
Tracts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, section 22 township 12 range 13, also tractions No. 2, and 7, in section 31, township 12 and range 10; and also 10
acres more or less, lying in the southern part of south west quarter of south east quarter of section 30, township 12 range
10. It being that portion lying south of Pike's branch, all the above lands lie in Calhoun and Cherokee counties, Ala., and will be sold, except about one acre heretofore deeded to J. G. Teague by said deceased in his lifetime.

TERMS OF SALE.—One half the purchase money to be paid down in cash and the other half 12 months credit, interest from date of sale, with note and

SATURDAY, SEPT. 16th, 1871.

Tallahadega Editor.—Cathlan.

We did not get the Talladega Watchtower following the visit of the young people of that place to Jacksonville, and had thought that Joiner, not having "panned out" as well on it as did Duncan of the Mountain Home, had neglected to send us a copy on that account. But now, since we have seen his handsome notice of the trip in a copy of the Watchtower sent us by a lady friend, we are ashamed of our suspicion. He writes Jacksonville up capitol. We also find in the same number, the following "Indignant Protest" from one Cathlan, (the Cathlan of Shakespeare was awful ugly) whose jealousy of the good looks of our brothers of the quill moved him to write.

Ed. WATCHTOWER.—The Jacksonville Republican thinks Messrs. J. & L. were "decidedly the handsomest men" accompanying the excursion last Thursday. Now granting that the editor was not using the "poetic license" allowed to all ink-slingers, and was like J. in "gossip" in making the assertion, we are forced to the conviction that he is a lineal descendant of the ancient female who oscillated the cow, and consequently it is as hard to account for his taste as it was that of the aforesaid female.

We are certain that he has aroused the indignation of every young lady of taste in Jacksonville. We know one who will "punch his head" if he don't "camp in his ink pot" for the next month. That editor certainly did not meet Messrs. W. D. Mott, M. P. Nick, K. and others. Sure he didn't see our "sure enough wondrous" high hat &c.

Yes, we saw you all and Miss I. too—all "pretty good looking, but can't come in" beside the blonde Duncan and the dark-eyed Joiner, the arrangement of whose back hair was so much admired. Piqued however that our girls should differ with us in taste, as Cathlan says they do, we have taken the trouble to "interview" five of them, by note, on the subject, and we lay the result of the correspondence before our readers that they may see how correct we were in our estimate of manly beauty.

MR. GRANT.—In answer to your note I can truthfully say that you are fully sustained by the girls, in your opinion as to the relative good looks of the gentlemen of the Talladega excursion party.

The pensive Mr. Duncan we thought indeed charming; while Mr. Joiner, with his "long, dark, sleepy, unattractive eyes"—the romantic girl's ideal, you know—and his "hip and snooty" was perfectly delightful to look upon. Nature has done for him what touristic artists have failed to accomplish for some of our young men ambitious of good looks. She has given him a great side part right in the middle of his hair, which not only places him a la mode, but which imparts a highly intellectual cast to his noble features.

"RED AS A ROSE IS SUE."

MR. GRANT.—We look upon Messrs. Duncan and Joiner as perfect models of manly beauty. Every young lady should have one.

RED LIPS.

MR. GRANT.—Why, O why, did you again stir the great depths of my heart and open anew the floodgates of my sorrow, by your question? I have not the heart to write more than the name—Joiner.—He was loved—years have obliterated the remainder—Ed Her.

FOURSAKIN.

Here is one from a young man who got hold of his sister's note and answers it for her. Duncan has evidently left a fly in his ointment. How different his sister would have expressed herself.

MR. EDITOR.—I picked up your note of enquiry to my sister, and will answer it myself. I think Mr. Duncan is a very ordinary looking man. My sweetheart has been talking nobly else, since those bucks came up here.

CCT OUT.

And here is one from another youth similarly circumstanced. He has been hiding his grief, since the visit of the Talladegians, in the flowing bowl.

DEAR GRANT.—I think you missed the mark widely. The red headed man was the best looking man in the crowd. I intend to draw a head of him from your man Joiner, the next time I see him. My sisters have been at me to shave the top of my head, ever since he was up here. Now they call me "shock head," and my girl, who never before found fault with my flowing locks, says my hair is so "horrid thick." How do you account for woman's partiality for bald-headed men? Don't you remember Goodwin?

CAN'T SEE IT.

may not have right—we could tell in a moment if we could only refer to their advertisements in the REPUBLICAN) and others were very cheerful considering the tight times, and had no complaint to make of dull business. All being five men, of course not. Such men make business. It is only among slow-coaches, sluggards or horse business men that one ever hears the pitiful cry of "hard times."

Capt. J. B. Farmer, a former resident of our town, and Dr. Henry T. Snow have our thanks for kindness and polite attention while we were there.

Among the new and pleasant acquaintances we formed, we may mention Dr. E. H. Allen, Mr. Cooper, Motes & Co., and others. Some of these were very old friends; but as this was our first trip to Oxford since the war, they were new men to us. We hope to pay the city another visit soon, when we can have a longer time to enjoy the company of her polite and hospitable people.

The well on the square is about to be a success. Water several inches deep has already been obtained.

CORRESPONDENCE.

CHATTANOOGA, TEN. Sep. 14, 1871.

Editor Jacksonville Republican:

The excitement concerning the disposition of the A. & C. R. R. by the courts is unabated. Its affairs are becoming more and more complicated, and at the end of any one day of hot news, no one could tell the exact status of matters. It is however known that the decree of Chancellor Key is being carried out, and that the parties appointed by the court to assess the value and take an inventory of the property of the road, held by attachment, and levied on under execution, have been engaged in performing the labor assigned them. It is estimated that the road has in Chattanooga, $1,000,000 worth of personal property, over and above the real estate and improvements thereon, provided the articles should bring anything like their real value. This however would be impossible, if sold under the Sheriff's hammer. There are immense quantities of material of all kinds used by rail roads, piled up in and around the different buildings of the company, enough to run two or three railroads as we run them in this country. These purchases were evidently made by Stanton, who never knew anything of his business, but acted at the suggestion of a few reckless adventurers he had around him, who seemed to regard business economy a disgrace, who boarded at the best hotels on small salaries, and one of whom had a workman engaged for several months, making him a centre table, a very small one too, which is to cost when completed $500. I mention these facts to show the dangerous position in which the State of Alabama will be placed should she be compelled to return this large amount of property, for which she gives her bond to either to, or pay the assessed value of the same. As a matter of course George G. Lindsay is acting under the advice of able legal counsel, and knows what he is doing, but I fear he is running a great risk. The attachments of creditors in CHATTANOOGA, amount to $200,000.

The foreign indebtedness, represented by parties in this place amounts to between $3 & $500,000. Many have not made their claims known, so it is almost impossible to tell the road's indebtedness.

STANTON STILL IN TOWN.

It was reported that Stanton had gone to Montgomery under the protection of General Clanton. It is talked of on the street that he dare not put his foot in Alabama, for fear of being arrested with a State's warrant. He certainly has not gone there from some cause.

THE COURTS.

Since the able decision of Chancellor Key, appointing Col. Gindrat Receiver, for that part of the road in Ten. Judge Wood of the U. S. Circuit Court has entertained a bill filed by the holders of the second mortgage bonds of the road, to have a receiver appointed in their interest. It is thought that Stanton's game is to get the road out of the hands of the State by paying the interest already paid by Alabama, pocket the surplus and then cheat the laborers out of their pay. Stanton has stated to parties in Chattanooga, that he had Judge Wood's decision in his pocket, and already knew what it would be. All the people along the line are anxious to have the road running, and especially the laborers, who say whoever runs it, they had rather lose what they have made than to have matters standing still.

Should Stanton succeed it will take a million of dollars or more to put the road in running order, as it is well known that the road below Atlanta is in a miserable condition, and that this sum will have to be expended to put it in running order.

The latest we have concerning the trial at Montgomery, is, that the State had asked for further time. Parties were having their depositions taken all day yesterday, to be used in the trial which will come off on to-day.

To the Voters of Calhoun County.

I find a report has gotten out among the people of this county, and is being circulated by the friends of some of the candidates, that there was an understanding between myself and Maj. Wyly, to announce my name as a candidate for county Treasurer, with the intention of getting the vote of my neighborhood which was going for Draper. It is a falsehood entirely without foundation. I run with a fair view, and if I am elected, I want it to be by fair election, and not by falsehoods.

I remain Yours Truly,

THOS. S. NEIGHBORS.

MESSRS. EDITORS REPUBLICAN.

Gentlemen—I am glad to have an opportunity through your paper of explaining Mr. Montgomery's note of last week. I am the person who gave it as my opinion, that Mr. M. would "come down," a conclusion based upon what he said to me, which was, that he was not electioneering while he was riding into different portions of the county, on business for the Sheriff. I did not intend by making the remark to injure Mr. M., or take a vote from him. We have been good friends and I think we are yet. Unconnected with the above, let me say to those who do not know me, that my friends can tell you how you'll find me.

JOSHUA DRAPER, JR.

CALHOUN COUNTY, ALA.

September 11th, 1871.

Mr. GRANT.—I am glad to see the name of Capt. C. W. Brewton, of this portion of our county, announced in your columns as a candidate for Commissioner. I think it nothing but simple justice, that every section of the county should be represented in the Commissioners Court; this with others, Capt. Brewton will make a good Commissioner, one who will look after, and attend faithfully to the interest of the whole county. He has been long and favorably known to the people of this part of Calhoun, and will command the undivided vote of

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Cleburne County.

MR. EDITOR.—The Democratic party of Cleburne County, on the 4th inst., nominated the following gentlemen as candidates to wit:

Joseph Ables, for Sheriff.
Lewis Coffee, for Tax Assessor.
J. D. Hogan, for Tax Collector.
J. H. Johnson, Jr. for Treasurer.
W. R. Barker, Co., Commissioner.
J. M. Treadaway, " Commissioner.
R. F. Pounds, " Commissioner.
S. H. Bean, " Commissioner.

All passed off quietly, and speaks success for the party in November next.

DEMOCRATS.

California, Maine, and Colorado Territory have all gone Republican. In California and we suppose, in Maine and Colorado, they tried on the New Departure. How it takes with the people, let the result of the elections in these States tell.

ALABAMA & CHATTANOOGA RAILROAD.

Col. Gindrat Appointed Receiver.

Gen. Clanton Beaten by a Mob.

Our readers are already advised of the application of the State of Alabama, through George Lindsay, to the Chancery Court of Chattanooga for the appointment of a Receiver, to take charge of the property of the Alabama & Chattanooga Railroad in the State of Tennessee. The State of Alabama was represented by John Baxter, Esq., of Knoxville, as counsel.

The holders of the second mortgage bonds, represented by Wood, a vulgar Chattanooga lawyer, and J. Q. Smith, a rather notorious lawyer and judge of Alabama. The case was argued before Chancellor Key, at Chattanooga on the 10th inst., and the State's case, as rendered his decree granting the application of Alabama, and appointing Col. J. H. Gindrat, Gov. Lindsay's appointee, as Receiver in Alabama, Mississippi, and Tennessee, and the bond of the Governor of Alabama for $200,000 was received for the safe return of the property in response to future orders of the Court.

The clerk and master was ordered to turn over the property in his possession to Col. Gindrat at once and take his receipt.

We gather the above facts from the Chattanooga Times, of the 8th, which states that the only impediment to the running of trains now are the attachments in Pade county, Georgia, which will probably be decided by Sept. 15th Judge Parrott, in accordance with Chancellor Key's decree, and the road may be expected to be open by Sept. 20. If an arrangement can be effected with attachment creditors in Pade county, the cars may run through by the 15th inst.

Chancellor Key has entered in his decision, a wise judgment and a proper regard for the public interests independent of the legal principles governing the case. It seems to have been received in high spirit by Wood, by the vulgar private sources, he assembled a crowd of men, of the lower sort, in front of the Burns House, on Friday night, after the delivery of Chancellor Key's decree, and made a speech, in which he indulged in railing and vulgar abuse of the State of Alabama, and made a sweeping charge of dishonesty against her people.

General Clanton, who was a guest in the Burns House, could not brook such language, applied to his State and posse, but went out and confronting Wood, denounced him in the most unqualified terms. Wood bore General Clanton's denunciation submissively, but it caused a row among his plug ugly adherents, who threatened General Clanton, who threw their stones with deadly denunciations of them as a set of cowardly scoundrels.

The police interfered and ordered Clanton to give up his arms. He declined, he afterwards consented to lay them aside in his room, and did so. Subsequently, he went to a larger bar saloon, where he encountered a set of Chattanooga ruffians, who attacked him with brass knuckles and bludgeons, but though severely bruised, he succeeded finally in routing them. These are all the particulars thus far received.

Indiscreet Democrat.

A Strange Freak of Nature.

A correspondent writing from Coote's store, lookingglass county, says: "A strange freak of nature has taken place in the track of the severe hailstorm that occurred in this region some three weeks ago. We are not aware of anything of the kind occurring heretofore. It is this: that the old orchards in the track of the hailstorm have come out in full bloom. Some orchards are in as full bloom as they ever were in the spring. Not only the apples are in bloom, but the sweet trees in many places are also in bloom. A gentleman came to my house last week and told me that on his road here he saw an apple tree with several bunches of ripe apples on and round about the same tree. A very pretty, but strange sight."

The Persian famine seems to sustain the horrors of the first part. At Isfahan, the largest city in Persia, though not the capital, there have been already 27,000 well authenticated deaths, and in the provinces, where the death first broke out, the mortality is reported to be even worse. This is a dismal record. We can scarcely realize in this broad land of plenty that such a hideous scene is being enacted. But we know little of the evils of cancerous despotism. In India, in the famine two years ago, even according to the statistics published by the British government the deaths footed up to two millions. Only another couple of years before that, there were, in which over a million of human souls perished. These are established facts; and in their light we are forced to believe the sad annals we publish this morning of the most hideous famine in modern history.—N. Y. Herald.

ILLINOIS.

BLOOMFIELD, September 11.—A fire on Saturday night destroyed $200,000 worth of property.

Stick to Your Bush.

Mr. Morgan was rich, and also a good man. The people of the town respected him, sent him to Congress, and seldom undertook anything without asking his advice. If a school-house was to be built, the plan had to be talked over with him. Widow P.—asked him what she should plant in her field; farmer S.—always got his advice in buying cattle, and Mrs. R.—consulting him about bringing up her boys.

When asked how he was successful, Mr. Morgan said, I will tell you how it was. One day when I was a lad, a party of boys and girls were going to a pasture to pick blackberries. I wanted to go with them, but was afraid my father would not let me.

When I told him what was going on, he at once gave me permission to go with them. I could hardly contain myself for joy, and rushed into the kitchen, got a big basket, and asked mother for a luncheon. I had the basket on my arm and was just going out of the gate, when my father called me back. He took hold of my hand, and said, in a very gentle voice: "Joseph, what are you going for, to pick berries or to play?" "To pick berries," I replied. "Then, Joseph, I want to tell you one thing. It is this: When you find a pretty good bush, do not leave it for a better one. The other boys and girls will run about, picking a little here and there, and not getting many berries. If you do as they do, you will come home with your basket empty, if you want berries, stick to your bush."

"I went with the party, and we had a capital time. But it was just as my father said. No sooner had one found a good bush than he called all the rest, and they left their several places to run off to the new found treasure. Not content more than a minute or two in one place, they rambled over the whole pasture, got very tired, and at night had but few berries. My father's words kept ringing in my ears, and I 'stuck to my bush.'"

When night came I had a large basket of nice berries, more than all the others put together, and was not half so tired as they were. I went home happy. But when I entered the house, I found that my father had taken very ill. He looked at my basket full of ripe black-berries and said: "Well done, Joseph. Was it not just as I told you? Always stick to your bush."

He died a few days after, and I had to make my way in the world as best I could. But my father's words sunk deep into my mind, and I have never forgotten the experience of the black-berry party; I stuck to my bush. When I had a fair place, and was doing tolerably well, I did not leave it and spend weeks and months in trying to find one that was better. When the other young men said: "Come with us, and we will make fortunes in a few weeks," I shook my head and stuck to my bush. Presently my employers offered to take me into business with them. I stayed with the old house until the principal died, and then I had everything I wanted. The habit of sticking to my business led people to trust me, and gave a character. I owe all I have and am to this motto: "Stick to your bush."

TO LAND BUYERS.

I am now offering for sale, on terms to suit the times, my tract of land containing 263 acres, and lying on the Greensport Road, 7 miles from Jacksonville, within a mile of the Southern Railway Station. About 80 acres are in cultivation. The balance is well timbered, and all tillable. On the place is a good dwelling, and all necessary out-buildings, as also a well, and a never failing spring. The situation is healthy. The neighborhood is good; and the place is convenient to churches and schools.

LOCAL COLUMN.

The sale of the Town Bonds is going on steadily and satisfactorily. The people seem to have the utmost confidence in them, as they may, and by the time the work will commence, enough will be sold to insure the success of the undertaking. It is only the stress in the money market which has prevented the taking of them all at once by our citizens. The bonds may be seen either at the Real Estate Agency of Messrs. B. C. Wyly & Co., or the Store of Ed. L. Woodward. Either Messrs. Wyly & Co. or Woodward are authorized to sell them.

We suggest that our people get up a concert, as the season for amusement is now upon us, for the purpose of raising funds to render the Female Academy more comfortable this winter. We are sure that our ladies will readily lend their talent to this undertaking, and that our people will unanimously encourage it with their presence and means. If not a concert, let us have a supper. If not a supper nor concert, let the subscription paper pass around. The little girls must not be allowed to suffer with cold this winter.

If not disappointed in our arrangements, henceforth we will give each week a batch of Alexandria Locals. Now, if we can get some from Cross Plains and another from White Plains to mix up these two places, we will be able each week to give the local news of the different points in this county. We would also like, if our friends in any other portions of the county not mentioned, would each week drop us a line informing us of what is going on &c.

Next Saturday (30th), the Jacksonville Base Ball Club, will play a game with the College Picked Nine, for the championship, on the Williams Base Ball Grounds—everybody invited to witness the game.

Our friends visiting Mobile, would do well to call at the elegant Ware-Rooms of Messrs. Bromberg Bros. No. 108 Dauphin street.

We call attention to the advertisement of F. K. Phoenix, Bloomington, Ill. He has the reputation, among our allies, of being the most liberal dealer in his line, with whom they have yet had any transactions. Give him a trial.

Let our farmers and merchants read the advertisement of Mr. C. G. Samuels, in this number of the Republican. Mr. Samuels is the successor in business of the well and favorably known firm of Elliott and Samuels. He is a gentleman of rare business qualifications, entirely reliable and altogether the sort of man our people love to deal with. We bespeak for him the patronage of every person who may have dealings in his line, at Rome.

The attention of those of our readers who may want anything in the Musical Instrument line, Fancy Goods, Toys and Trivials for Christmas times &c., is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Bromberg Brothers, Mobile Alabama. The House is reliable one, and if our Presbyterian friends conclude to place an organ in their church, we would suggest to them to correspond with Messrs. Bromberg Brothers.

Messrs. Drapier & Johnson have just received a fine lot of Brimley Flows, Nos. 1, 2, 3. Farmers are invited to call and purchase.

The members of the Good Templars Association and others, are requested to meet at the Baptist Church next Thursday night, as business is to be transacted.

Dread, in Jacksonville, after a long and painful illness, on Tuesday last, Mrs. Smith Turner, wife of D. C. Turner. The afflicted husband has our deepest sympathy.

Mr. Wm. R. Black requests us to return his thanks to the citizens of Jacksonville and vicinity for the timely aid given him after his recent misfortune by fire. He says the subscriptions pretty much covered his losses.

Mrs. Hallett & Miss Lou Crawford, have an advertisement in this issue of THE REPUBLICAN, to which we direct the attention of our readers. The faultless taste of these ladies is an earnest that they will please in the execution of any work given them. They deserve the very highest credit for thus becoming helpers in the great field of labor, and merit the greatest encouragement, and we hope our people will give them as much as their fair hands may find time to do.

It is with real pleasure that we announce to the patrons of the Female Academy, that the services of Mrs. Jno. M. Wyly have been secured in the Music Department of the same. Mrs. Wyly is a most accomplished musician, and we trust her connection with the Academy will prove beneficial, both in increasing the number of pupils and giving higher tone to the education of our girls. The teachers have also added another feature to the Academy which reflects the very highest credit upon them. Each week henceforth two lessons will be given in drawing, alternating with the writing lessons, thus securing to the girls an added accomplishment, and leading their thoughts and observations into a most wholesome field of activity.

The attention of our merchants and planters is directed to the advertisement of R. A. Pringle Cotton Seller and General Produce Broker, Charleston, S. C. His references are unexceptionable, and we have no doubt that those of our people who send their cotton or purchase produce in Charleston, would do well to avail themselves of his services. Keep his advertisement by you.

Quite a revival meeting is going on at Alexandria we learn, under the auspices of the M. E. Church South. All denomination of christians have united in the good work and many are being brought into the church. From every part of the country commensal reports. Here at Jacksonville, a meeting is in progress at the M. E. Church, and the interest is on the increase.

We are indebted to Joe Goode, News Dealer, for copies of Little's Living Age, and the Eclectic Magazine. The young man keeps quite an assortment of magazines, newspapers and books on hand and can for a very small consideration furnish food for amusement during the coming long winter evenings. He also rents out books, we believe at a small sum by the week.

Last week Messrs. D. D. Draper & Sons bought the first bale of cotton that came into Oxford, at 19 cents we believe.

Please call and pay your account. The money is needed.

B. L. WOODWARD'S SON.

By some mistake the numbers of land were entirely wrong in the advertisement of the Estate of Patton Brothers. They appear corrected this week.

G. B. Douthit, administrator of Wm. Phillips, deceased, appeared as administrator with the will annexed. The will annexed was a mistake and is corrected.

Gentlemen:

Please allow me to appropriate a small space in your columns in the correction of a report that has been circulated, to the effect that Maj. Willis is to be my deputy or to have the emoluments of office with me, if elected. I denounce it as utterly false. No such understanding has ever been thought, or spoken of. Hoping that this may remove all such impositions, I am yours truly.

D. W. WARLICK.

OXFORD LOCALS.

Oxford is very dull now in the way of trade. There is but very little cotton coming in.

The streets of Oxford are crowded almost every day, with people who are merely loafing about troubling other people and doing nothing themselves. The town council ought to pass a law directing our marshal to pick up all such cases, and, as our streets are in a pretty bad condition, put them to work immediately.

The funds of our town treasury were increased a few dollars the other day, by the honest hands of two gentlemen from the country. Nobody hurt!

D. L. Gunnels has gone to New York for the purpose of purchasing goods.

A protracted meeting was commenced at the Presbyterian church last Thursday night. Revs. Mr. Watson and McLean are conducting it.

The new brick dwelling on Snow's street belonging to Joshua Draper, Sr., will soon be completed.

There are nine white preachers in Oxford when they are all at home. Black ones innumerable.

There was a party in town the other night but the turnout was rather small.

B. D. Williams has a lot of books on hand for sale, entitled "The Mystery of Medicine Explained." It is a book of incalculable value, by Dr. Byrr.

If your health you wish to keep, You cannot find a plan so cheap As that which you will quickly learn In this book by Dr. Byrr.

If this book you want to see, You just supply call on me, And after you have "took" a look, You certainly will take a book.

B. D. W.

OXFORD, May 8th, 1871.

MAJ. ABNER WILLIAMS—Dear Sir:

This is to certify that I have tested "Arnold's Self Acting Clothes Washer" and take pleasure in stating that after a fair and impartial trial, it has fully sustained the high reputation it bears, and I regard it as being superior to anything I have seen in the way of a Washing Machine.

ROBT. MCKIBBON.

The owner of the century plant at Montgomery that bloomed last year has cut it down. It did it again this year, and he was afraid he'd soon be as old as Methuselah if it kept on. We believe he is a young widower.

The New York Times warmly in favor of the Democratic Party's adopting the New Department, and advises the Democrats accordingly, with tears in its eyes. We are not surprised that the Times should give such counsel. Disinterested monitor!

Eleven orders for unadorned Swedes were sent off from here yesterday. The Swedes will be installed at once as house servants and farm laborers.

Rome Commercial.

A Son-in-law of one of Grant's brothers-in-law is without an office. It is but fair to say, however, that a good appointment was once made out for him, though subsequently withdrawn.

The payment of some few subscriptions would come in pretty well just now.

DIED—On the 15th day of Sept., 1871, of scarlet fever, aged 3 years, 3 months and 12 days, youngest daughter of G. F. and Angelina Bohner.

"Mourn not for the child from thy tender-ness risen,
Ere stain on its purity fell!
To thy questioning heart, lo! an answer from heaven:
"Is it well with the child?" "It is well."

Our school-books are electrotyped, printed and bound in Louisville.

They are the work of Southern Authors.

Ours is the ONLY Publishing House South of the Ohio engaged in the publication of school-books. These facts should induce teachers of the South and West to examine our books before coming to a conclusion.

We invite a careful comparison with others, feeling satisfied that our publications will more fully meet the wants of our people than those of any other house.

They are now in use in the most important schools of Virginia, Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and California.

* Principals of Schools and Colleges, and Members of Boards of Education, are requested to send us their Catalogues and School Reports. Correspondence invited.

* Under cost for examination, on application, at special rates. Favorable terms for first introduction. Address:
